51 COLORED WOMEN QUALIFY

Congestion That Existed During
Earlier Period Has Entirely
Abated—Three Octogenarians
Registered—"Lily Blacks" Active.

The feminine line winding its way to the registrar's offices at the City Hall yesterday between the hours of 9 A. M. and 2 P. M. was deceptive. Old and seasoned politicians, accustomed to trying out election day estimates based upon observation of the lines at polling places, looked over the situation and predicted that the day's enrollment would fall 50 per cent below the total of any day this week. The count last night disclosed that they had reckoned wrong. No fewer than 581 women's names were added to the city's polling list, the feminine qualified vote of Richmond today is 5,510.

The wheezers came closer to the real situation during the day in their estimate of the colored enrollment. Garland Taylor, deputy clerk of the City Circuit Court, took the place of Central Registrar Woodson at the colored station in the basement, less practiced at the task, he was able to register only eighty-one colored women against 123 registered by Woodson the preceding day.

The miscalculation of observers was due to the fact that at no time during the day was the congestion of the earlier period of registration apparent. The women came in a steady procession. There was no crowded hour in the morning or in the afternoon. The registrar and his deputies were kept busy all day, but the women were not subjected to the annoyance and inconvenience of waiting a long time in line. The total registration for the day was only thirty-two below Thursday's figures.

Three Octogenarians Qualified.
An unusual incident of the day was the appearance in Deputy Blakely's office of three octogenarians. Mrs. Annie Mose Bigger, widow of the late Colonel John Bell Bigger, for a quarter of a century clerk of the House of Delegates and Keeper of the Rolls of Virginia, was the senior of the trio. Mrs. Bigger was accompanied by her son, Samuel W. Bigger, of the State Corporation Commission, and her daughter, Mrs. Bigger, of the State Corporation Commission. Mrs. Bigger, who is 84 years of age, is a remarkable woman. She is a member of the Virginia League of Women Voters, and is a member of the Virginia League of Women Voters.

Following Mrs. Bigger came Mrs. Clara E. Drake, who gave her age as 84, and after her came Mrs. Ellen L. Quisenberry, the youngest of the trio, who only recently attained to her eightieth birthday anniversary. It is a remarkable fact, touched for by the registrar, that none of these ladies required assistance in making out their applications. Each wrote a clear, legible hand.

While party leaders were viewing the line and giving their conjectures as to the cause of the absence of the congestion, the women noted at both the white and black stations, Registrar Woodson expressed the opinion that a large number of women were deterred from coming early by the announcement made of the opportunity to register on registration day, October 2, to register in the precinct in which they reside.

Estimates of the expected enrollment of white and colored women were obtained yesterday afternoon from authoritative sources. Miss Adele Clark, secretary of the citizenship committee of the Virginia League of Women Voters, said:

"Our organization has listed approximately 10,000 women who are virtually pledged to register. They have been coming along bravely, and I expect the heavy registration to continue to the last day."

"I would like to put these ladies on notice that nothing can be done for them on registration day if they come to the precinct registrar without a poll tax receipt in hand. I have no doubt many of them are under the impression that they can be assessed, pay the poll tax and be registered at the precinct registrar without a receipt. The precinct registrar will be unable to enroll any woman or man who has not been to the office of the City Treasurer and paid his or her poll tax. The poll tax receipt must be exhibited in all cases. No poll tax no vote."

From J. R. Pollard, city chairman of the "Lily Black" wing of the Republican Party, it was learned that the organization of colored women affiliated with the negro wing, has had a committee of thirty canvassing the old Jackson Ward district for four weeks, taking the eligible voting census and enrolling names. In the first week, Pollard said, 3,500 names were enrolled. He said later enrollments had brought the total to approximately 5,500. A good many of these, he admitted, did not permit their names to be listed as active members of the women's branch of the "Lily Blacks." He claimed, however, that 5,000 colored women whose names are on the organization list as pledged to the political organization will be registered in time to vote in the November election, or as many of them as may be able to qualify before the registrars.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Trial of the suit of Tildy Coal Company against the Moore Lime Company was begun before Judge Crump and a Law and Equity Court jury yesterday afternoon. The case came up on an appeal from the Civil Justice Court. A small contested account was involved. The case will be probably decided today.

Herald Dudley was chosen president at a recent meeting of the senior class of John Marshall High School. Other officers were chosen as follows: Vice-President, Miss E. Gaff; secretary, Nathan Lambeth; treasurer, Robert McCarrill; girl representative, Miss C. Smith; boy representative, W. Hatcliff; faculty adviser, Miss C. Wheeler.

Department Commander, Charles Pohl, and staff, consisting of Adjutant Binford, Captain M. Davidson and others, will leave Richmond for Boston today with about fifty other prominent Odd Fellows, to attend the annual convention of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. to be held in the Hub city September 25 to October 2. Captain Davidson will visit friends and relatives in New York and Philadelphia on his return from the convention.

Rev. J. F. Carey, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, has secured the services of Rev. J. F. Carey, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, to assist in the special revival, which begins tomorrow and continues for two weeks. They will have charge of the singing in the Men's Bible Class Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

Returns from the tag day yesterday for Floyd Hall, a boarding home for business girls, on South Third street, conducted by the Catholic Women's Club, could not be estimated last night on account of a number of boxes not turned in. The appeal met with a generous response.

POLICE SAY MRS. WESTON
ELOPED WITH MUSICIAN

Wife of Millionaire Lumber King of Mississippi Detained by Local Authorities.

Mrs. A. C. Weston, aged 18, wife of a millionaire lumber king, of Mississippi, is in jail here, together with Leonard Bayersdorfer, a musician, with whom police say she was eloping, being held for Mississippi authorities on suspicion of the theft of her husband's automobile and Bayersdorfer for violation of the Mann white slave act.

Mrs. Weston, who, the detectives declare, is one of the most attractive women ever to become entangled in the snares of the police net, is also being held for the Department of Justice and will be given a hearing this morning by L. H. Kemp, head of the department here.

When taken into custody here, Mrs. Weston was wearing more than $10,000 worth of diamonds. She was quite frank to admit that the automobile in which the pair were said to be traveling was the property of her husband, the police declare, and was calm and self-possessed while being quizzed by the detectives.

Every hour or so last night, and all day yesterday, telegrams were received by officials here from the frantic millionaire husband en route from New Orleans, where he was when his wife disappeared from Gulfport, Miss. He telegraphed from the train at practically every stop, it is declared, the Department of Justice having received some of his messages. All of them were to the effect that his wife was to be given every consideration, and that no expense was to be spared to make her comfortable and happy until his arrival.

Police say that the couple is wanted by Mississippi authorities and also by the Department of Justice and will be held until instructions to release them are received. The automobile is worth $5,000, according to the police. No charge against the couple is to be made here, except that of being fugitives from justice.

Captain A. S. Wright, of the detective department, questioned the prisoners yesterday afternoon and said that the woman he gave every consideration. Bayersdorfer, apparently was much more worried about the predicament of the couple than Mrs. Weston. He is about twenty-five years of age and is said to be penniless.

Mrs. Weston would give the police no reason for leaving her husband yesterday other than that she regretted marrying him sometime after the step was taken because of a difference in their ages.

Demand Security of Mrs. Buckley. Justice John Crutcheid yesterday announced his decision in the shoplifting cases which have been on the Police Court docket for several months and principal among which was the case of Mrs. F. C. Buckley. In Police Court yesterday he ordered that Mrs. Buckley be put under security of $100 in each case against her for a period of six months, and that the other cases of like character be disposed of similarly. Trial of the cases was conducted during the week, but Justice Crutcheid reserved his decision until such time as he had considered the matter carefully.

Registration Aids
Rat Extermination

Number Slain Rodents Expected to Reach 50,000.

Demand for the rat-bait which the City Health Bureau is distributing free of charge to all comers has been largely increased by the feminine registration in progress at the City Hall. Many of the women go across the corridor to the health headquarters office after registering and carry away packages of the barium carbamate. The supply is consequently fast diminishing.

It is not known when Director of Public Safety Levy will declare the rat extermination campaign at an end. It has been in progress four weeks and it is estimated that more 50,000 slain rodents will be accounted for when the reports are all in. Dr. Levy will return to Richmond tomorrow night. He left San Francisco with City Health Officer C. C. Hudson last Monday. The two principal health officers attended the sessions of the American Health Association, which was in convention all last week.

When the North Atlantic Tuberculosis Conference is held at the Jefferson Hotel, October 7, Dr. Levy will reside at the Manning session. Miss Nora Spencer Hammer, secretary for Richmond, is sending out invitations to medical doctors and nurses, the cause of consumption will be discussed by many prominent physicians in the city. The conference will be held by the convention. Among the speakers will be Dr. Raymond Pearl, of Johns Hopkins University, whose subject is announced as "Is It Heredity?" Preparations for the reception and entertainment of the doctors and nurses who will attend are now under way.

DRY AGENTS ACTIVE

Despite Curtailment of Department Appropriation, Efforts Are Productive.

Reports coming to the Commission of Prohibition, Harry B. Smith, yesterday showed that, despite the action of the General Assembly in greatly curtailing the force of the department, through reduction of the department's appropriation, many arrests are yet being made by the prohibition inspectors.

Four reports coming into the office yesterday show that in Danville three men were arrested for carrying whisky and three arrests were made. Joe Holland was arrested at Glen Walton and fined $100 and sentenced to six months in jail, reports received show. Arrests throughout the

At Hopewell every real estate dealer in the city was present, and there was much enthusiasm over the project. The exchange went on record yesterday at Hopewell at 3 o'clock and at Petersburg at 5.

Both Mr. Richardson and Mr. Schmidt spoke at Petersburg on the formation of the State association and were heartily received at one of the largest meetings of realty men ever held in that city. Both returned to Richmond last night after their trip, and will leave here this afternoon for a night in Charlottesville. Other Virginia cities will be visited next week.

The realty men are enthusiastic here with the reception of the idea over the State, and are congratulating themselves that the idea originated here. It has been learned that other associations of realtors were considering the same proposition when the Richmond exchange announced that it would take the matter up.

Newspaper News are said to already have declared in favor of the State organization, and Norfolk has taken charge of organization of the realtors in the Seaboard section.

Cadet Corps Appointments. Appointment of commissioned officers was made yesterday in the John Marshall High School cadet corps and will take effect at once. Appointments are regularly made at the end of each school term, but because of the large number of cadets who failed to return to school this season, other officers had to be appointed. The appointments follow: Captain R. W. Hall, First Lieutenant R. Blanksen, Second Lieutenant H. Dudley, W. Crenshaw, W. Smith, R. McCarrill, J. Goddin, Ray P. James, commandant.
